

DAVID GRAEBER

2009-present: Graeber Studio

1989-2009: Stankard Studio

1984-1985: Graduated from West Deptford High School and Gloucester County Vocational School

1985-88: Apprenticeship with George Vail - studied forensic reconstruction, wood carving

1987-89: Scotco Design Group, Foreman: wood working/ carving/ graphic design

POSITIONS AND AWARDS

1991 -teaching assistant for Paul Stankard at Pilgrim Glass, West Virginia for first Flame working workshop.

1998 -teaching assistant for Paul Stankard for first Flame working workshop at Urban Glass in Brooklyn, New York.

1999 -teaching assistant for Paul Stankard for the first Flame working class at Kanazu Forest of Creation in Kanazu, Japan.

2013 -Flame working workshop at The Gathering Place Naperville, Chicago.

2013 -Flame working workshop at Carlisle School of Glass, Millville, NJ.

2017 -Flame working workshop at Expressive Glass, Buffalo, New York.

2017-2018 -Flame working workshop at Project Fire, Chicago, Illinois.

2018- Established first Flame working studio at Perkins Art Center, Collingswood. NJ.

2018 -Flame working workshop at Camden County College, Blackwood, NJ.

AWARDS

1993 - New Jersey State Co-op
Student of the year.

2016 - received $2,500 scholarship from Texas PCA for Bill Gudenrath glassblowing workshop.

2017 - received $2,500 scholarship from PCA.

2018 - received the New Jersey Heritage and Cultural grant for $3,000.